DEE DEE WARREN, co-owner of TheologyWeb.com (see www.TheologyWeb.com), contributor to The Preterist Blog (see <http://www.preteristblog.com>) and operator of The Preterist Site (see <http://www.preteristsite.com>), will address the theme: "HYPER-PRETERISM: The Resurrection of an Ancient Heresy".

Hyper-Preterism, among other things, denies a future, visible, bodily return of Jesus Christ, and a future resurrection of the dead. Our guest Dee Dee Warren was a hyper-preterist for a brief time in 1998/1999 which nearly wrecked her faith and devastated her emotionally. After she came out of that through the assistance of Pastor Chori Seraiah, she became actively involved in refuting this heresy and providing resources for people who are being lured off the cliff. At the time Dee Dee started this work, she was the only person doing this kind of work regularly and consistently. Her podast is available here: <http://www.preteristpodcast.com>

For a quick summary of Dee Dee's background, her introductory podcast is quite short: Episode One: A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Rapture
